

Like A Ukulele

Stephen Jerzak

Some say love is just a word-
Overused and thrown around.
But baby, that's not the case with you. (and)

Some say we are way too young-
Moving fast, but we know what we're doing.
No one could understand at all.

I get lost in your eyes about a million times everyday,
So let me say that
You play my heart like a ukulele.
And if you get tired, then you can lay with me.
You play my heart like a ukulele.
And lately, I've been humming along.

Some say love is just a game,
And not for us to play.
But every rule is different with you and me.

Some say we are so confused.
But little do they know, this love's for certain;
No one could understand at all.

I get lost in your eyes about a million times everyday,
So let me say that
You play my heart like a ukulele.
And if you get tired, then you can lay with me.
You play my heart like a ukulele.
And lately, I've been humming along.

You play my heart like a ukulele.
And if you get tired, then you can lay with me.
You play my heart like a ukulele.
And lately I've been humming along.
