

Shamoe

Steriogram

Throw in a jacket and shirt a pair of legs and a skirt and multiply what you heard down the vine and tell your friends at the bar this night is gonna go far and that we'll all have one hell of a time Throw in a pinch of patron and add a little shamoe
and with one heavenly glow we go round we take it all in our stride we do this all with such pride we'll take you all for a night on our town leave that bed alone

lets get good to go
cause we're all getting bookbent
and we wont be coming home

It's about that time must do it again set course get sauced fly round the bend keep up the pace and dont lose your head til 4am anticipation, replication, faking reputation applause as we swing through those doors back on the stool where we belong too long catch up from where where we're from same old story rise and glory falling sorely celebration, collaboration, mixing with intoxication get on up and yell from the bar

and that we'll all have one hell of a time
and with one heavenly glow we go round
