

One More Troubadour

Steve Moakler

Some of us are streak on a buzz skin
Some of us are big time stars
Some of us are rhinestone cowboys
Some are bald caps in dive bars
New England down on the deck see
Wielding a guitar like a sword

I'm just one more Troubadour
Man, I'm looking for a song you never heard before
I'm a neon heart on a one dance floor
Always only passing through town
And I'm two parts gone by now
Wanna live in every minute of time this sounds
Drop a five in my jaw and turn me up a little bit
I'm just one more Troubadour, alright

Some of us are dreamers and drive-bys
Some of us just misunderstood
Outcasts and hopeless romantics
We run engines right out of the hood
It's an old time tradition
And I'm all caught up it's law

I'm just one more Troubadour
Man, I'm looking for a song you never heard before
I'm a neon heart on a one dance floor
Always only passing through town
And I'm two parts gone by now
Wanna live in every minute of time this sounds
Drop a five in my jaw and turn me up a little bit
I'm just one more Troubadour, alright
Hoping this world needs one more Troubadour
I suppose heaven made me one more Troubadour
Just a little bit crazy, one more Troubadour
Singing to my baby tonight, alright
