

Suitcase

Steve Moakler

Everybody wants a house on the hill
Everybody wants a skiboat
Everybody wants a big promotion at the end of the year
Everybody wants a swimming pool in a big back yard
A little more vacation and a brand new car

But I'd be fine watching you watch the sun go down
With your head on my chest and a blanket on the ground
'Cause everybody wants to chase the rainbow and find a pot of gold
Hoping theres a suitcase full of money
But all I want is you, honey, yeah

It'd be pretty cool if I could buy you anything you wanted
And if we won the lottery, no, I wouldn't complain
We all want something that we lost back
Wish we could make a few changes to the past
But when I'm with you, baby, I only want one thing

I'd be fine watching you watch the sun go down
With your head on my chest and a blanket on the ground
'Cause everybody wants to chase the rainbow and find a pot of gold
Hoping theres a suitcase full of money
But all I want is you, honey

If I had one more time to make you smile, that's what I'd do
'Cause I'm betting it all, girl, I could prove it to you

I'd be fine watching you watch the sun go down
With your head on my chest and a blanket on the ground
'Cause everybody wants to chase the rainbow and find a pot of gold
Hoping theres a suitcase full of money
But all I want is you, honey
