

For The First Time

Steve Wariner

Are those your eyes? Is that your smile?
I've been looking at you forever
Yet I never saw you before

Are these your hands
Holding mine?
Now I wonder how I could've been so blind

And for the first time
I am looking in your eyes
For the first time
I'm seeing who you are

I can't believe how much I see
When you're looking back at me
Now I understand what love is, love is
For the first time

Can this be real? Can this be true?
Am I the person I was this morning
And are you the same you

It's all so strange
How can it be?
All along this love grows right in front of me

And for the first time
I am looking in your eyes
For the first time
I'm seeing who you are

I can't believe how much I see
When you're looking back at me
Now I understand what love is, love is
For the first time

Such a long time ago
I had given up on finding this emotion ever again
But you're here with me now
Yes, I found you somehow
And I've never ever, ever been so sure

And for the first time
I am looking in your eyes
For the first time
I'm seeing who you are

I can't believe how much I see
When you're looking back at me
Now I understand what love is, love is
For the first time
For the first time
