

While I'm Holding You Tonight

Steve Wariner

The truth shows on your face
And hurt is what you're feeling now
Heartache is all he has given you
But you manage make it somehow

So take a look at yourself
And take my hand
And I'll make everything alright
Let him be the one who's hurting
While I'm holding you tonight

I wonder if knows what he's doing
Being bitter to someone so sweet
I look in your eyes and see the love there
It still hurts you is a mystery to me

So take a look at yourself
And take my hand
And I'll make everything alright
Let him be the one who's hurting
While I'm holding you tonight

Take a look at yourself
And take my hand
And I'll make everything alright
Let him be the one who's hurting
While I'm holding you tonight
Let him be the one who's hurting
While I'm holding you tonight
