

Cigano (For the Gypsies)

Steve Winwood

Moving on, no abode
Through the day and night, bridle road
Turning from the thirsty day
Time is right to slip away

Cigano, it's a road to anywhere
Little old sky for shelter
Freedom, all you have to bear
Cigano, a never ending road, secret destination

Lonely fire, darkened sky
Never staying, just passing by
At the crossroads, horses fed
Guided by stars overhead

Cigano, it's a road to anywhere
Little old sky for shelter
Freedom, all you have to bear
Cigano, a never ending road, secret destination
Destiny foretold

Moving on, no abode

Turning from the thirsty day
Time is right to slip away

Cigano, it's a road to anywhere
Little old sky for shelter
Freedom, all you have to bear
Cigano, it's a never ending road
Taking his existence, destiny foretold
