

My Love

Stevie Hoang

I am the man who will fight for your honour,
I'll be the hero that you're dreaming of,
I will be there forever If we were together,
You'll feel so amazing if you had my love,
If you had my love.

Ooooh, another radio killer,
If you had my love,
Baby if you had my love,
If you had my love.

Now tell me girl, does he really care,
Coz he aint ever by your side,
You wait around for him to settle down,
He just aint that type of guy.

But everything I do I do it for you,
He could never love you the way that I do,
We belong together you know that it's true,
Just give me a chance and I'll prove it to you.

Baby I will give you everything,
Everything you're dreaming of,
You aint gotta afraid no more,
Coz if you had my love.

I am the man who will fight for your honour,
I'll be the hero that you're dreaming of.
I will be there forever, If we were together
You'll feel so amazing if you had my love.

Girl I can be everything you need,
But you're telling me im just a friend.
Just stay the night, I'll open up your eyes,
And im never looking back again.

Coz everything I do girl I do it for you,
He could never love you the way that I do.
We belong together you know that it's true,
Just give me a chance and ill prove it to you.

Baby I will give you everything,
Everything you're dreaming of.
You aint gotta afraid no more,
Coz if you had my love.

I am the man who will fight for your honour,
I'll be the hero that you're dreaming of.
I will be there forever, If we were together,
You'll feel so amazing if you had my love.

(My love) Let me be your fantasy,
(My love) Give you everything you need,
(My love) If you want my love, let me hear you say yeah yeah (yeah yeah)
