

No Better Than This

Stevie Hoang

I can still remember
I took you back to the place where we first met
You had me mesmerized in that red dress
Everyone was watching
I took you by the hand and got down on one knee
My heart was racing, hoping that you would say yes

Then you threw your arms around me and cried
I remember just how I felt inside

I've waited all my life
Now I'm standing here
This is all I've ever wanted here today
I know this is it
Looking in your eyes
As I lean in for a kiss
It don't get no better than this

Everyone was standing
The music started playing, our eyes all a mess
As you walked down the aisle in that white dress
Ooh

I made a vow to love you
To be there by your side for better or for worse
No matter what, I'll always put you first
And then suddenly, all my dreams came true
As you took my hand and said I do

I've waited all my life
Now I'm standing here
This is all I've ever wanted here today
I know this is it
Looking in your eyes
As I lean in for a kiss
It don't get no better than this

Just when I thought this is as good as it gets
Now I'm holding your hand by this hospital bed
Now all that I can do is hold back the tears
As the doctor brings out our little boy

I've waited all my life
Now I'm standing here
This is all I've ever wanted here today
I know this is it
Looking in your eyes
As I lean in for a kiss
It don't get no better than this
