

Special Girl

Stevie Hoang

Yea, you know it's getting kinda lonely in this business
I need somebody to be there
You know what?

I need a special girl
I'm looking for the one tonight
Type of chick to stand by my side
I need a special girl
Somebody to be down for me
One to always be around for me
I need a special girl
It doesn't matter who you are
The chick from the ghetto or the superstar
I need a special girl
A soldier that would ride for me
And die for me and be everything I need

Now I done took advantage being single, living life on the road
But lately I just can't deny I wish I had a Shawty at home
So I'mma tell you love exactly how it's gonna go
I'mma find myself a lady I be down for
A little thug with some class and potential
The type that got my back and it don't bail

I need a special girl
I'm looking for the one tonight
Type of chick to stand by my side

Somebody to be down for me
And to always be around for me

It doesn't matter who you are
The chick from the ghetto or the superstar
I need a special girl
A soldier that would ride for me
And die for me and be everything I need

A lady not afraid to speak her mind, who's always keeping it real
Independent with a sexy little attitude
At times that I don't wanna drive I know that she handle the wheel
Drop a message to me saying that she coming through
