

The Only One

Stevie Hoang

When I met you girl
I wasn't looking for love
Fucking around was enough, enough yeah
I ain't supposed to be
Hitting and doubling back
I know my boys would be mad, be mad yeah

I'm tryna be cool
Late night conversations with you
Got me catching feelings for you
I can't believe the way you gotta play a tripping on you

Baby I can't see you with nobody else
I [?] to be the only one
Now you got me tripping when you're not around
Thinking someone else is breaking you off

I gotta be the only one to touch you
I gotta be the only one to love you
I gotta be the only one to kiss you
Oh I gotta be, I gotta be your everything

Everything has changed
I don't want nobody touching your body
And you feel the same
You don't want nobody calling me baby
Call me selfish but
I want you wanting myself
I don't want nobody else with you

I'm tryna be cool
Late night conversations with you
Got me catching feelings for you
I can't believe the way you gotta play a tripping on you

Baby I can't see you with nobody else
I [?] to be the only one
Now you got me tripping when you're not around
Thinking someone else is breaking you off

I gotta be the only one to touch you
I gotta be the only one to love you
I gotta be the only one to kiss you
Oh I gotta be, I gotta be your everything

Woah girl, let's stop playing these games
I'm hoping baby you feel the same
Oh girl, all my feelings have changed
And I just want you all for myself

Baby I can't see you with nobody else
I [?] to be the only one
Now you got me tripping when you're not around
Thinking someone else is breaking you off

I gotta be the only one to touch you
I gotta be the only one to love you

I gotta be the only one to kiss you
Oh I gotta be, I gotta be your everything
