

Listen to the Rain

Stevie Nicks

Well you're a front liner
You put it all on the line
And you're a gambler
You turn lucky every time
Ooh, you're consistent
Hey, and that's good
And you're persistent
Well I am overcome

Well you're not like anyone else
You're not like anyone
You're just an instant flash of light
That shines through the night like a lighthouse

Well you're a victim
Phantom of the opera
And you've been everywhere
And you live in dark shadows
You do what you want to
There's no Beauty and the Beast here
No no no
There's no Beauty and the Beast here

Well you're not like anyone else
You're not like anyone
You're just an instant flash of light
That shines

Well open up the window
And you will hear the rain
Come back to me once more
And throw away the pain

My world will still revolve around you
Listen to the rain
Take time to listen to the rain
Listen to the rain
Take time baby to listen to the rain

Well she didn't know better
Well she didn't know then that the sound that she heard
Well she didn't know
Was the sound of her own door closing

Open up the window
And listen to the rain
Take some time to smell the roses
And you can throw away the pain
My world will still revolve around you
So listen to the rain
Take time baby to listen to the rain
And listen to the rain
Take time and listen to the rain
Well take time and listen to the rain
Take time baby a little time baby
Ooh take time honey take a little time honey

Take time to listen to the rain
