

I'll Tell My Friends

Stick Figure

Lord have mercy, when you come again I'll tell my friends
Lord have mercy, I said that when you again I'll tell my friends uh ooh
Lord have mercy, when you come again I'll tell my friends
Lord have mercy, I said that when you again I'll tell my friends uh ooh

And then I woke up and I rolled out of bed
I saw my girl and here's what I said
I said I love you like no other girl
But she ain't the only girl in my world
So girl take it one day at a time
You know I'll be feeling good, I'll be feeling fine
You must know your not the one for me so girl so girl can't you see it went like this...

Come on down here and help my friends
Tell the people and the children they can live their lives again
I find we often fighting without and reason
We must never must give up hope must continue to believe in Bringing good to the bad and the poor and the old
Bringing truth to the ones from all the lies that they've told

Well I, well I
I said now hold up, hold up, hold up and let me clear my throat
I said now hold up, hold up, hold up and let me clear my throat
Already, you want to come and stop me
Already, you want come and talk to me
One, two, three, you want to come stop me
Stand right next me, put and end to me

Lord have mercy, when you come again I'll tell my friends
Lord have mercy, I said that when you again I'll tell my friends uh ooh
Lord have mercy, when you come again I'll tell my friends

Lord have mercy, I said that when you again I'll tell my friends uh ooh
I said hold up, hold up, let me clear my throat
I don't know, but it been told
It's might hard to run with that weight of gold
Now I'm gonna let you all know, it's how I flow
I never stopping for the po-po

Lord have mercy...
Lord have mercy, I said that when you again I'll tell my friends uh ooh Lord have mercy, when you coming again I'll tell my friends.
