Dead Man Walking

Stiff Little Fingers

When I went out last night I saw a dead man walking And he smiled at me As he went on his way

And then he sang a song full of loss and longing
Thats could break your day or make your day

Why did this man seem so alone When he was standing In a crowd of laughing people laughing?

When I went out last night I saw a dead man walking And he smiled at me As he went on his way