Life Is Too Lonely

Stone Fury

Well I saw the way you looked at me
And knew what you would say
When you said goodbye
I promised that I'd try
To love you, til the day that I die
Only time will tell
Whether I mean well
But babe, I do the best that I can
And the time seems long
My fear is strong
You wanna run and let me go

Life is too lonely without you
Love is the only way out for you

Oh, don't forget, that when we met
Time was on our side
Well, nothing's changed, the love remains
You better stick to what you know
You're so far away, far away
You gotta know that I love you
You're so far away, far away
You gotta know that I love you

Now I see your eyes, I'm by your side
Your love burns bright for me tonight
I cannot forget, it's not over yet
Even though you wanna let go
