

Where You Comin' From

Stone Gods

Told myself to keep it together
Hiding all the secrets under one white lie
Sick of feeling under the weather
Answer every question with a big ass sigh

Trying to get myself a connection
Check the lights are on in case somebody's home baby
They say talk is cheap but you won't waste your money on me

Why
Why won't you tell me?
Where I'm going wrong
Why won't you show me?
Where you're coming from

And still I'm trying to keep it together
Everybody's saying I've gone cuckoo mad
I'm hanging off the end of my tether
Stop myself from selling everything we had

Got to get myself a connection
Banging on your wall to bring it tumbling down baby
As a wise man said, I was a fool to rush in now I'm over my head

Why
Why won't you tell me?
Where I'm going wrong
Why wont' you show me?
Where you're coming from

Solo

Why
Why won't you tell me?
Where I'm going wrong
Why wont' you show me?
Where you're coming from
