

Metal Legacy

Stormwarrior

Fists fly high punching through the night
Oh the gods are on revenge
It's the tyrant's fall tonight
Chain clash sounds, rivets sparkle bright
Oh the denim hordes appear
Now the undergrounds unite

Raging steel
Sacred rites
War-cries heard tonight
Metal Warriors assemble to strike
Thunderstorms
Iron gods
Lightning strikes up high
Iron legions have gathered tonight
For the Metal Legacy

Pounding the world with the blessing of the gods
We're the saviours of the past, the defenders of a cult
Swear the oath tonight, fulfill the gods command
If it's not inside your blood, thou wilt never understand

Raging steel
Sacred rites
War-cries heard tonight
Metal Warriors assemble to strike
Thunderstorms
Iron gods
Lightning strikes up high
Iron legions have gathered tonight
For the Metal Legacy
