

Spikes and Leather

Stormwarrior

Wild and barbaric Metalheads are fighting the false, reviving the past Hordes of Metalians march into the war
Defenders of Metal are here in the hall
We wear spikes, we wear leather
Heavy Metal brings us together
Spikes & Leather, the law of the streets
Loud and proud, it's all that we need

Our religion, a bond of glory
A pride of steel holds us together
The rebellion of a strong belief
Headbanging law forever

Spikes & Leather. the law of the streets
Spikes & Leather

The flames in our hearts, our belief and our pride are keeping the fire alive
We'll never surrender, never kneel to the crowd
This faith of deepest honour keeps us proud
Not chosen this life, but chosen this style
We'll never repent our fight
The faith in the blood, the pride in the heart
Together we fight in the name of the gods

Our religion, a bond of glory
A pride of steel holds us together
The rebellion of a strong belief
Headbanging law forever

Spikes & Leather. the law of the streets
