Straight Line Stitch

What be this beast here that lies deep asleep
Right in the heart of me?
They say I'm not the person that I used to be
But I don't know what's changed me

Today it feels right to let go of everything I know
Release the reins and just let it go

And I can't take this pain I'm holding back the storm
But can you tell me what we're fighting for
And why am I to blame? I've been here before
But can you tell me what we're fighting for?

There's more to me 'cause now I'm changed
No longer will I be the one to bare the pain
You pushed and pushed until you knocked me down
But I'll catch you on the rebound

This is the last time that I close my eyes
If I were you I'd run and hide 'cause I'm coming for you

Today it feels right to let go of everything I know
Release the reins and just let it go

And I can't take this pain, I'm holding back the storm
Can you tell me what we're fighting for?
Why am I to blame? I've been here before
But can you tell me what we're fighting for?
What are we fighting for?

Fade to grey, you can't hideaway

And I can't take this pain, I'm holding back the storm
But can you tell me what we're fighting for?
And why am I to blame? I've been here before
But can you tell me what we're fighting for?

No longer will I be the enemy
Break down the walls you built around me
(What we're fighting for)
No fear inside, I set my soul free
What we're fighting for

No longer will I be the enemy
Break down the walls you built around me
(What we're fighting for)
No fear inside, I set my soul free
