

Chest Candy

Stray from the Path

Five sided puzzle palace (Five sided puzzle palace)
Pentagram devil makers (Pentagram devil makers)
Terror squad soul savages (Terror squad soul savages)
Death dealers, deal breakers

Tell me the f*cking truth
Who do you recruit?
Drifters and disposable youth
Searching for purpose
Send 'em into the furnace
"Thank you for your service"
Hit 'em with the IEDs, heavy artillery
While the infantries need the pills to sleep
Trade your f*cking soul for that chest candy
Another colony, another casualty

They said "Be all that you can be"
Just sign your name and die for me
Let's see what colors you can bleed
From the field to the infirmary

Just sign your name and die for me
Just sign your name and die for me
Just sign your name and die for me
Just sign your name and die for me

Show me some f*cking proof
That justified a broken truce
Send in the troops and tear right through
Hearts of the nations, debilitated
Territory, trade, and oil
To the victor goes the spoils

I'm through
f*ck you to the red white and blue
Propagandists
Cause when the eagle has landed
It's only damage (More)
More damage (More)
More damage (More)
God damn it
They said "Be all that you can be"
Just sign your name and die for me
Let's see what colors you can bleed
From the field to the infirmary

Just sign your name and die for me
Just sign your name and die for me
Just sign your name and die for me
Just sign your name and die

A cross on the hill
A trillion in an arms deal
The whole world is watching with glass eyes
A cross on the hill
A trillion in an arms deal
The whole world is watching

"If you could say one thing to your recruiter, what would it be?"
"f*ck you"
