

True Colours

Studio Killers

Show me your true colours
In their blinding brightness
Show me your true colours
Like they glow in the night
When you are dreaming
Forget about the others
The unbearable lightness
Of our being

Even spy satellites
Won't see this coming
Our love
That's hiding in the dark

Reach out
I promise you
Then we'll be lovers
'Cause it's our true colour

Show me your true colours
And we'll light up the darkness
Show me your true colours
I'll embrace all the
Monsters in your closet

Even spy satellites
Won't see this coming
Our love
That's hiding in the dark

Reach out
I promise you
Then we'll be lovers
'Cause it's our true colour
