

The Raven

Sturm und Drang

Forests wrecked and cut, flies the raven in the sky He's got no home, no lonely hut, he's forced to fly and fly

Shut your eyes, don't kill your dreams,
fly, through the clouds above
Nothing is no longer what it seems,
turn all your anger to love

(Chorus)

A lonely wolf was chased down there, by people scared and poor He's like you, he cannot share his life no more Fly down raven to your friend, leave destruction far behind

Fly and run until the end and finally ease your mind Fly away like the raven

He was running free across the plains, but now he's doomed to die We're coming back you can be sure, it's all just one big lie

Shut your eyes, don't kill your dreams,
fly through the clouds above
Nothing is no longer what it seems,
turn all your anger to love

(Chorus)

(Solo)

(Chorus)
