

Polyester

Suburban Legends

Do La Do Walk around the world acting like your shit don't stink

(Yeah)

You got the phony kids around you telling you what to think

Now raise your hands if this song about bullshit is calling your name

(Yeah, yeah)

And you like to get drunk, talk about who's to blame

Wanna dress you up in polyester

(Dress you up in polyester)

Baby I'm so glad I met ya

(Baby I'm so glad)

Wanna dress you up in polyester

Whisper candy in your ear

Making my intentions clear

(Making my intentions clear)

Dance up your heels in that bourgeois bar where everyone loves you

The second that you leave they're going to talk about that they're so above you

Let down your hair, let down your guard and just let yourself get all undone

It's the time in your life when you need to have some fun

yeah

La [Chorus x3]
