

Villain

Suburban Legends

Read your lips a thousand times
Paint you on my chest
When I see you in the light
Before you steal my breath
You make me laugh and it kills my joy
[Chorus:]
If you want to feel like a villain
You want to ride for free
Purple suit and white painted monkey
Come on and ride with me
Beaten down too many times
You've been defeated by the billionaire
On on the outside find him laughing
In the middle is his deadly stare
He'll take his time
With a killing joke hanging on his mind
[Chorus x2]
Your sidekick splits when the punchline hits
Cuz he is silent with cold him there [?]
You can bargain for your life
With the blood of the bat
But his joke never ends up fair
[Chorus]
