

Bruises

Sugarcult

I turn off the lights
So you can't see my eyes
My fingers are crossed
While I promise the world to you
And I feel like I'm walking on air
Believing a lie when I thought that you cared

I can tell that i'm falling in love with you
Bruises prove it's real
I can tell that i'm falling in love with you
Bruises prove it's real

You're on pictures
With smiles that convince
You can reach all the things
That you'd love but can't give to me
You chase all the things you can't have
And I am a diamond closed tight in your hand

I'm losing my edge
You laughed instead
I'm losing my edge
You laughed instead

I can tell that i'm falling in love with you
Bruises prove it's real
I can tell that i'm falling in love with you
Bruises prove it's real
I can tell that i'm falling in love with you
Bruises prove it's real
I can tell that i'm falling in love with you
Bruises prove it's real
