

From All the One

Suicidal Angels

When darkness rises
Embrace the eternal flame
No compromises
I have no fear, I have no shame
When darkness rises
I am along of those who are gone
I'm there to stand, to worship

From all, the one
The fallen one
The chosen one
From all, the one

When light fades
Be careful not to wake the dead
Life slips away
Reaching out the final resting place
Where darkness reigns
I swear my vows to thy
The darkest corners
I hear your souls, they cry

From all, the one
The fallen one
The chosen one
From all, the one
