

The Feeling's Back

Suicidal Tendencies

I wrote a letter just the other day to nobody in particular But if anyone were to read a bit-they'd think I was a bit peculiar But it matters not what they think of me, it's only what I know is real And so all that's left that matters now-is that the feeling's back

The feeling's back and you just can't stop it
The feeling's back and you just can't stop it

I fought a thousand times-I never knew the meaning of the word fear Till that one day when I stood alone-staring straight into the mirror
It's not a pretty sight-and even worse it's so hard to face Until I realize I'm the only one that put me in this place

I'm gonna breathe I'm gonna live-that's rightnothing's gonna stop me
I'm gonna shout I'm gonna scream-that's right-
nothing's gonna stop me
I'm gonna run I'm gonna fly-that's right-
nothing's gonna stop me
I'm gonna fight I'm gonna win-that's right-
nothing's gonna stop me
Nothing's gonna stop me, nothing's gonna stop me now...
Cause the feeling's back and you gotta love the feeling

I dug my hole too deep-I couldn't admit, I didn't know when to stop
But you can only dig your hole six feet until the dirt comes back on top I've got a long way left to climb but I'll still look you straight in the eye
And I can honestly say I'll never quit-not even on the day I die
