

Like It

Summer Walker

I'm so selfish, I can't help it
I need you all to myself
Keep your focus, way I do it
Boy, you don't need no one else

Ain't no race, baby
No, when I'm riding it slow
And my waterfall
I make it overflow
Make you forget all about them hoes
Oh, you don't need 'em

'Cause can't nobody else give it to you like that
I've been rewinding all the flashbacks
Tell me how it feels when I throw it back
Tell me again, tell me again

Oh, that you like it
Tell me again, baby, that you like it
Type of love that make you wanna wife it, oh
Tell me again, baby, that you like it, like it
Like it, like it

I've been fucking up your conscience
Fallin' in love with every part of us
Adjust to all your nonsense

'Cause can't nobody else give it you like that
I've been rewinding all the flashbacks
Tell me how it feels when I throw it back
Tell me again, tell me again

I've been gripping on your waist
Flexed up, tryna beam you outta place
Made love on the lowkey
Now I'm tryna fuck you broad day
Tell me leave, I'ma stay
I'm just tryna get a taste
Chef's kiss for my next wish
Lay a lock on my face

Ok, I like it, like it
My pipe likely
Have her redialling
Tryna fight it

She gon' throw it back
I'ma run and get a ring, yeah
Then she gon' open up
And take one for the team, yeah

Say that you like it
Tell me again, baby, that you like it
Type of love that make you wanna wife it, oh
Tell me again, baby, that you like it, like it
Like it, like it

Tell me how I make you feel
Oh, she won't do you like I will, yeah
Tell me how I make you feel
Oh, they won't do you like I will
