

New Manifesto

Sunshine

Today
We got in a fight once again blue sky no more just the tears, more bloody rain show me what you've got and I will tell you.. what's the final price
before you leave me give up all artificial ties lazy day, emotions down, it's all crap middle of May and the monkey's sitting on my lap tries to convince me it's all I can get and what's the final price?
I will spit out all the lies

It's such a beautiful feel to be untied and be a hero New Manifesto, Peace
never ever see ground zero and start it once again today is now, not tomorrow you're gonna disappear
you're gonna disappear now

Swallow it all, there is no doubt I am calling it a night It's nobody's fault car crash in your head please don't go too fast everything was arranged back in the past everything is messed up in between us
I'm your machine little toy from past this is all wrong you control me but I've gotten strong and set myself free

It's such..

let me rest and please
