

Back My Dreams

Sunstorm

I'm losing my mind
I don't know where you're going
This trap we call time
Is breaking all things
I've been holding

All these tears again
Please take my pain away
All that I've known
Is taking me back to you
My heart's cold as stone
God knows what I should do

All these songs I sing
Can't take you back to me

If I could take back time
I would not leave you alone
If I could say goodbye
I told you our love would have grown

Nothing's lost as it seems
Give me back my dreams

Rivers hard to cross
Mountain too high to climb
The deepest the loss
The toughest the crimes

All these tears again
Please take my pain away

If I could take back time
I would not leave you alone
If I could say goodbye
I told you our love would have grown
Nothing's lost as it seems
Give me back my dreams
