

Everything You've Got

Sunstorm

Flying high, you keep the kite ever in the rest of age
The power arise and it's flowing in sight
Never build a castle of sand
Don't give up you can control ?
A stranger might change your path
Don't try to hide your face in your hand
Nothing can beat you that far

Hold on, every reason to the walls
Stop pulling yourself down
Give me your best shot
If you don't know where you're going now
Gimme everything you've got

Yourself , these guided words
About the way you are
Climbing the mountains to the top
Proving yourself you're wrong

Hold on, every reason to the walls
If you hold your head up high
It's never time for goodbyes
Stop pulling yourself down
Give me your best shot
If you don't know where you're going now
Gimme everything you've got
Stop pulling yourself down
Give me your best shot
If you don't know where you're going now
Give everything you've got

Don't run, don't try to push yourself too far
Stay tough, night will try to bring you down
Don't rush, give yourself time to fly
Go ahead give me your best shot
Give me everything you've got

Hold on, every reason to the walls
If you hold your head up high
It's never time for a goodbye
Stop pulling yourself down
Give me your best shot
If you don't know where you're going now
Gimme everything you've got
Stop pulling yourself down
Give me your best shot
If you don't know where you're going now
Gimme everything you've got
Stop pulling yourself down
Give me your best shot
If you don't know where you're going now
Gimme everything you've got
Stop pulling yourself down
Give me your best shot
If you don't know where you're going now
Gimme everything you've got
