

Press

Superchunk

I want to know if it could be
I want to know if it was
I want to wrap my arms around your leg
I want to listen to you

In the press the soft bones crush
I want to hear you buzz

I want your fireballs of you
I want to grow inside your coat
I won't stand ankle-deep in the sand
I want to cross the moat

In the press the soft bones crush
I want to hear you buzz

In the press the soft bones crush
I want to hear you buzz
In the press the soft bones crush
I want to hear you buzz
