

The Emotional Kind

Superdrag

She's just the emotional kind
But the way that she kiss drive me out of my mind
She's just a beautiful girl
I swear she takes me away from the world

She sends vibrations all around
I once was lost but now am found
Communicates without a sound
Sometimes I quake with the brake down
Quake with the brake down
Quake with the brake down
Quake with the brake down

She's just the girl of my dreams
But I can't keep from waking as strange as that seems
She shine like most people breathe
If I come on agnostic she makes me believe

She send vibrations all around
I once was lost but now am found
Communicates without a sound
Sometimes I quake with the brake down
Quake with the brake down
Quake with the brake down
Quake with the brake down

She send vibrations all around
I once was lost but now am found
Communicates without a sound
Sometimes I quake with the brake down
Quake with the brake down
Quake with the brake down
Quake with the brake down
