

Truest Love

Superdrag

You are my intoxicating wish
So much more to live for than my fist
If I want to breathe with you,
Close my eyes and let you see right through
That's a scary thing to do
It's the very thing I do.
It's the very thing I do

Put me on a supersonic trip.
Very time you wake me with your lips
If I want to bleed with you,
Close my mouth and tell you that I do
The truest lies are few.
The truest lies are few
But the truest love is you
