

You're Alive

Superdrag

Calm as the blood dries in your veins.
Armed with all that you have in your brain.

Overlord of the disengaged.
Coming back from the dead.
Lock your burden in a cage and come alive again.
You're alive.

Peace is always in your grasp.
Leave all that you have in your past.

Overlord of the disengaged.
Coming back from the dead.
Lock your burden in a cage and come alive again.
You're alive.

Oh.

I got a broken cast.
Memories won't last.
Picture seems to fade.
And then you've got it made.
Everyone was told.
Never growing old.

Calm as the blood dries in your veins.
Armed with all that you have in your brain.

Overlord of the disengaged.
Coming back from the dead.
Lock your burden in a cage and come alive again.
Won't you come alive again?
Won't you come alive again?
You're alive.
