

I have landed.I have landed on your skin.
And I'm fading in the brightness of the reflecting light.
I have landed.
I have landed on the top of your skin.
I have felt in love with you, the source that keeps me strong.
Cause it's only thing that makes me pure.
And you're the thing I'd live for if everything is gone.

So you're fameless, all I can do.
Just you know that my love is true.
Know, I can only be your choice.
Be only thing my eye could see.
My friend do store no faults.

I have landed.I have landed on the top of your skin.
I have made it all not knowing this could cause discord.
But I landed on the top and I hold.
Been too long for me to fall.
Just as a slave that waites for death unchains his soul I care.
Because your faith and strenght will make me pure.
And you're the thing I'd live for if everithing is gone.

So you're fameless, all I can do.
Just you know that my love is true.
Know, I can only be your choice.
Be only thing my eye could see.
My friend do store no faults.

Cause it's only thing that makes me pure.
And you're the thing I'd live for if everything is gone.

So you're fameless, all I can do.
Just you know that my love is true.
Know, I can only be your choice.
The only thing if I'd have a choice.
So you're fameless, all I can do.
Just you know that my love is true.
Know, I can only be your choice.
Be only thing my eye could see.
My friend do store no faults.
