

Fisherman's Friend

Support Lesbiens

My name, it's been so odd,
the day was good but turned so quick now it's bored, I feel like a dog well trained and everybody is like it under it's name.

But I see your stupid little faces and I know your stupid little crimes
and if I'll keep on moving this way, I will flip
and so you will and so you will all.
Don't you want a fisherman's friend,
don't you want a fisherman's friend.

I'll run away no matter where I've nicked the mellowship and so that's why it rains, my heart it beats so fast
I've given up and quit the fear but still it lasts.

But I still see your stupid little faces
and I know your stupid little crimes
and if I'll keep on moving this way I will flip
and so you will and so you will all.
Don't you want a fisherman's friend,
don't you want a fisherman's friend.
