Cancers all over your body set
Seems you are the one who is getting higher
Don't forget the change is not set yet
Watch and go and search and don't forget
They'll try to cut your head
If you don't pay the rent
They'll jsut bust your mind
You better go escape I say
You better listen to me what I say
In case of pullinf your card it's driving me lame
You'd rather go back to God, beware of fraud
Make your call to end it all without any thought
No brain no pain
I'll buy some time, do you wanna line
You'l feel so fine
I wanna change your mind
Break your walls around you right now, leave that shit
Behind you drop down
Fucking up the dark lords
And beliece you'll win someday
Come on and paint it blue
Go for the bleeding knowledge of world
You've better save your mind and try to keep the dirt
Try to save your neck don't risk your life
We'll see you any other night...
