

No Farewells

Supreme Majesty

From my dark past it came, the evil
Possessing my mind
Forbidden desires, against her
A will to kill

Struggling for her
Her life in my hands
Fighting the shadows, I believe
There's no turning back, no turning back

No more remorse
No more dead ends
This is my goodbye to you, my beloved

Time to part our ways
Why the sadness in your eyes
No farewells now
We will meet beyond the skies

I left her in tears and sadness
To fight for her life
The key I possess, to save her
A knife in my heart

Struggling for her
Her life in my hands
Fighting the shadows, I believe
There's no turning back, no turning back

Time to part our ways
Why the sadness in your eyes
No farewells now
We will meet beyond the skies
Time to part our ways
Why the sadness in your eyes
No farewells now
We will meet beyond the skies
