Survivor

Two dreamers, what would it feel like to meet by light of day So lonely, wouldn't if feel right to love this night away Your name keeps echoing down this wishing well Wild hearts on an endless flight, Set free in our dreams tonight

Two souls drawn to the fire in desperate dreams
Two hearts lost to desire's desperate schemes
One girl lost in a reverie
Lost love found in a memory
Those nights live on forever
Two fools lost in a desperate dream

Torn pages, more than a memory, pieces of the past
One vision, your image keeps haunting me, a love too good to la st
Your voice keeps echoing down this wishing well
Wild hearts on an endless flight,
Set free our dreams tonight

Two souls drawn to the fire in desperate dreams
Two hearts lost to desire's desperate schemes
One girl lost in a reverie
Lost love found in a memory
Those nights live on forever
Two fools lost in a desperate dream

One love divided burns brightly through the night Two dreams united until the morning light

Two souls drawn to the fire in desperate dreams
Two hearts lost to desire's desperate schemes
One girl lost in a reverie
Lost love found in a memory
Those nights live on forever
Two fools lost in a desperate dream
