

King of Tragedy

Susanna Hoffs

She's a cross between
Emma Peel, Gwyneth Paltrow and Katy Lee
She's got a boyfriend he's 23
She won't give him up
I can't set him free

And still he means the world to me
If only I could make him see
If only he'd be good to me
But he's the king of tragedy

He calls me on the phone
He needs another loan
Gonna lose his home
He lays it all on me
And I feel so guilty
Want to tell him no
But he always tricks me into letting go

And still he means the world to me
If only I could make him see
If only he'd be good to me
But he's the king of tragedy

Oh, come back to me

We used to call you Johnny fun
Isn't that ironic after all you've done
But the door's still open, the way is clear
When you get it together
I'll be here

And still he means the world to me
If only I could make him see
If only he'd be good to me
But he's the king of tragedy

You and me that's all I ever wanted
Can't you see you're all I ever wanted
You and me that's all I ever wanted
Can't you see you're all I ever needed
