

Free The Butterfly

Suzi Quatro

One kiss for yesterday, one hope for tomorrow face to face with sorrow, with nothin left to say one more love affair dead and gone two heavy contenders, moving will the snake shed its skin when the truth rushes in

So left the chrysalis begin, free the butterfly with in spread my wings, I wanna fly let my happiness begin, free the butterfly within in spread my wings, I just go to try free this butterfly, free butterfly, this a butterfly

Precious moments we can't forget, a promise forever yes, we know, that's it's over, my heart has no regrets cuz the love we shared has flown away although I'm beside you, everyday we shared the best, now it's time to put this pain to rest

spread my wings, I wanna fly
spread my wings, I just go to try
free this butterfly, free butterfly, this a butterfly

The snake shed its skin, truth rushes in;
I start to cry, this is goodbye... free.

spread my wings, I just go to try
free this butterfly, free butterfly, this a butterfly
