

Please Remember Me

Swans

You penetrate my eyes
And you steal my memory
And each sensation burns
Another piece of me away

The mirror 's turned to the wall
Reflecting what I'll be
And I'm afraid of dying
And I'll forget what I've just seen

So please, remember me
Please

The blood runs through the Earth
Beneath these hollow stones
Now love is in this razor blade
But you'll never be alone

The people that were here before us
They live inside your tears
And i'm afraid of forgetting
And i don't know where I've just been

So please, remember me
Please
Please remember me
Please (x2)
