

All in Your Mind

Swing Out Sister

Falling in to someone else's daydream
You'll wake up when you're prepared to learn
Can't steal yourself an imagination
Face the truth or watch your future burn

Flying high as a bird in the sky for a while
Maybe makes you feel fine
But it shows when you're low 'cause you know
That it's all in your mind
Every trip that you take shocks your senses awake
But you can't turn back time
You'll get by when you find it's no lie
That it's all in your mind

Stepping out into this wide world for the first time
Catch your breath or you will be led astray
Attitudes some low and cruel to fool you
Mesmerized hypnotic eyes look your way

Flying high as a bird in the sky for a while
But it shows when you're low 'cause you know that it's all in y our mind
It's all in your mind

Every trip that you take shocks your senses awake
You'll get by when you find it's no lie that it's all in your m
