

Touch Me Now

Swing Out Sister

Touch me now
With the light
Left behind in the night
Why is the smile you once wore
Softly fading now
With the light all alone out of sight
Where are the stars in your eyes shining now
To guide me for as long as you're beside me
I'll still wake up in love
Whatever you're dreaming of

Touch me know
Tenderly
Warm as the love we once shared
Softly fading now
With the light
Where are the stars in your eyes shining now
To guide me for as long as you're beside me
If only you'd change your mind and show me
I could be the one you're dreaming of
I'd see the love in your eyes
