

Until Tomorrow Forgets

Swing Out Sister

Life slips away
Like a clock and still as a summer's day
The truth can be unkind and change your mind
Before you've had the chance to say
Time gets away
Runs ahead of those it led astray
And what it leaves behind won't change your mind
When there's a reason left to stay
Until tomorrow forgets
And the stars fall from the sky
In between heaven and back
I will ever say goodbye
We'll fly away
To a place forever lasts always
Where's the no night or day to lose their way

Lost in a world that had to wait
Time gets away
Runs ahead of those it led astray
And what it leaves behind won't change your mind
Until tomorrow forgets
And the stars fall from the sky
In between heaven and back
I will ever say goodbye
Until tomorrow forgets
And the stars fall from the sky
In between heaven and back
I will ever say goodbye
