Concerto

Swollen Members

No fabric can protect you from the magic I let loose I'm fantas ia on acid let the phantom possess you Crush submarines to dust Who can't feel me inside you can't tell me real men don't cry Let's not pretend in the end we don't die I hope when I grow up they send me up high And we won't give up the fight I follow the light and stay up a ll night In the end we all die I hope when I go they send me up high My life to live life without my girl life fucked so I hide from the outside world I'm stuck in this place and I just can't help it planned my esc ape, but I still seek shelter You must have felt that I'm self abusive lied to myself and I m ake no excuses When I'm by myself I can change what the truth is so I stay ins ide that's why I'm seclusive Lots of movies boxes of popcorn big bag of weed nice girls in m y hot tub I'm deep into this hibernation look into the mirror like please be patient Write with the vest on it's kind of intense dangers probably wa lking on the other side of my fence Something pointed at the door I'm going out of my head one of t he ways to look at life is that we all ready dead One of our brothers got killed that's the first saint gone hope fully the last and we all stay strong Young veteran bonded by friendship honor and vengeance we armed for protection