

Attractive

Syd Matters

If you're naked and wake
If you're drunk as
An alcoholic
You don't drink
You don't drink

You worry about everything
You worry about everything
Don't you worry about it
Don't you worry about it
'Cause he is just talking shit
'Cause he is just talking shit

And it's you
It's you
It's you against the world
And the world against you
It's you against the world
And the world against you

Don't you feel attractive?
Don't you ever feel attractive?
Don't you ever feel attractive?
Don't you ever feel attractive?
You don't ever feel attractive, right?
You don't ever feel attractive, right?
You don't ever feel attractive, right?
You don't ever feel attractive, right?

And now the planes keep crashing
I never felt American at all

Don't you feel attractive tonight?
You don't ever feel attractive, right?
Don't you feel attractive tonight?
You don't ever feel attractive, right?
You don't ever feel attractive, right?
You don't ever feel attractive, right?

And now the planes keep crashing
I never felt American at all

Don't you feel attractive tonight?
You don't ever feel attractive, right?
You don't ever feel attractive, right?
You don't ever feel attractive, right?

If you're naked and wake
If you're drunk as
An alcoholic
You don't drink
You don't drink

You worry about everything
You worry about everything
Don't you worry about it
Don't you worry about it

'Cause he is just talking shit
'Cause he is just talking shit

And that's you
It's you against the world
And the world against you
It's you against the world
And the world against you
And the world against you
And the world against you
