

Love & Sleep

Syd Matters

Now speechless man
He's feeling kinda down
Moving and roving around
Thinking of leaving this town
'Coz I don't think I can
Get up again

Bring this life to an end
Like any other man
Try to understand
What it is to fail, to fail, to fail
Though I can breath and I can walk
Oh I'm still unable to talk
My mind is only smoke
My heart is nearly broke

Why it's so hard to stand
Mouth to mouth
Hand in hand

Well I don't worry for you
You'll find another man
Leaving me far behind
Oh my case is such a delicate one
Oh my case is such a delicate one
I know my case is such a delicate one
