

The Bereaved

Sylosis

Memory is the sadness we keep
Eternity is an endless sleep
In the light of remorse
We'll let the pain run its course

This will be our desire
Burns right through your soul
The only way we know

Rivers run just to wash deceit
The ground will break to swallow us whole
Watch their eyes as they tell their lies
As the stars tear the skies apart

This will be our desire
Burns right through your soul
The only way we know

It's all we have left
As we watch the sun set
And never forget...
